CANADIAN DESIGN-BUILD INSTITUTE RECOGNIZES EXCELLENCE IN DESIGN-BUILD

SEPTEMBER 22, 2006

HALIFAX, NS -- The Canadian Design-Build Institute (CDBI) recognized excellence in Canada's design-build industry by presenting its 4th Awards of Excellence on Friday, September 22 at CDBI's 2006 National Design-Build Conference held in Halifax, Nova Scotia.

The project award recipient was:

Design-Build Award of Excellence – The Juno Building, Chiefs and Petty Officers' and Officers' Facility Project, Halifax, Nova Scotia. The team responsible was PCL Constructors Canada Inc. as the design-build contractor; the design consultant team was led by WHW Architects; and the owner is the Department of National Defence.

There were also two Honourary mentions:

Honourary Mention – Accolade Project at York University, Toronto, ON. The design-build team of PCL Constructors Canada Inc. as the design-build contractor; the design consultant team were B&H Architects/ Zeidler Grinnell Partnership; and the owner is York University.

Honourary Mention – Flat 17 Condominiums, Calgary, AB. The design-builder and Architect were Housebrand; and the owner is Tupelo Holdings

Established in 2002, the CDBI Awards of Excellence are presented annually to recognize excellence in Canada's design-build industry and to acknowledge design-build teams whose projects contribute to the growth and stature of the design-build profession. Award recipients demonstrate the highest standards and principles in the design-build industry and the business community in pursuit of excellence.

Established in 1998, the Canadian Design-Build Institute is the national voice of Canadian design-build practitioners and is a Special Committee of the Canadian Construction Association (CCA).
